Writing a Check

Even though most of your bills and expenses will probably be paid through online banking services, it's still important to know how to write a check when needed. Choose one of your expenses from the other side of the worksheet and practice writing a check to pay that bill.

PAY TO THE ORDER OF _____	DATE _____
	$ <input type="text"/>
_____ DOLLARS	 Security features included. Details on back.
MEMO _____	_____
1 2 3 4 5 9 6 0 9 8 1 2 5 0 0 5 : 1 2 6 3 6 5

Instructions:

1. Write the current date in the top right corner.
2. On the line that starts with "Pay to the Order of," write the name of the person or business you're paying.
3. Write the numeric form of the amount in the box with the dollar sign. (for example: $150.00)
4. Write the amount of the check using words on the line underneath the name/business. (for example: One hundred fifty and 00/100)
5. Sign your name on the line in the bottom right corner.
6. Optional: You may write a note in the for/memo line to remind yourself what the check is for. For example, you can write your account number here if you're paying a bill.
7. TIP: Record the transaction in your check register to keep track of your spending!
